INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

A Disease for Which Ordinary Treatment Is Unsatisfactory.

Description of a Severe Case Which Was Readily Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The ordinary medical treatment of inflammatory rheumatism is still far from satisfactory. Most of these treatments are directed at the symptoms and are considered successful if they relieve the pain and stiffness. But the blood has not been purified and the rheumatism is sure to return, especially after a season of exposure to cold and dampness. For this reason, sufferers from rheumatism will be interested in the success which Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills have had in curing this painful disease.

Francis H. Clarkson, of Archbald, Pa., was cured of a severe attack by this treatment. His case is described by his mother, Mrs. Arthur Clarkson, as follows:
"Two years ago this spring," she says, "my son, Francis, had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. After he had been under the care of a doctor for some time and had tried several remedies without getting relief, I was advised by a friend to give him Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"When he began taking the pills he had been sick for several months. His joints were badly swollen and pained him all over his body. His legs were so swollen and painful that he couldn't stand on them for three weeks. I had him give the pills a good trial and he was entirely cured."

An attack of rheumatism is very difficult to cure so that it will stay cured.
Ordinary treatment aims only to relieve the pain until the attack wears itself out.
Then it is liable to occur again and usually does, year after year.

If you have failed to find more than temporary relief from your suffering the treatment is most likely not a bloodpurifier and you are, therefore, not treating the cause of your trouble. You should not neglect to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills but begin a course of treatment with them at once. A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing more information about rheumatism and other diseases of the blood, will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

For clean, dry, boiled butchers' or house ments of 200 pounds or more. Ship in barrels or cheap sacks.

Carroll S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt.

While the way freight was here in the yard Tuesday, by some accident which caused the rails to spread, two cars were derailed on the main line, which was not made good for several hours, and the regular trains were obliged to use the side track to reach the station. The mishap occurred just below the South Pleasant street crossing and no serious damage resulted.

K. F. Emerson narrowly escaped a very serious accident on Tuesday night.
When he approached the Main street crossing, the engine which had been assisting the derailed cars onto the track was under good headway, but Mr. Emerson, despite the warning of W. W. Morton and the trainmen, drove on ahead.
His carriage was caught by the engine and the back wheel broken, throwing Mr. Emerson out, while the horse cleared himself and went home. Mr.
Emerson was taken up in an unconscious state and taken to the home of Dr. J. A.
Russell near by, to regain consciousness, when he was afterwards taken to his home. Upon examination it was found that no bones were broken. Mr.
Morton escaped without injury.

About the State

George C. Boorne, pastor of the Universalist church in Rochester, will be ordained to the ministry October 27.
The service will take place in Rochester and Rev. H. A. Parkhurst of Bethel will give the right hand of fellowship.

Black bears are plentiful in the vicinity of Pittsfield, John Brown of that place bringing one down Tuesday, which weighed 150 pounds. Sunday, Wilbur Kitt of the same place shot one in an open pasture in plain sight of Pittsfield village.

Ray Lyman, the representative from Stratton, is only 23 years of age, but makes up in height what he lacks in years, as he measures 6 feet, 6 inches in his stockings. A few years ago, the representative from the same place was only 21 years old.

Lightning struck the steeple of the church in Woodbury last week, tearing out a portion of it, the current going through to the vestibule below, where windows were broken and timbers and finishings badly damaged. There were no services Sunday on that account.

A cow belonging to Edward Morway of Watbury Center, for which he had been offered $100, fell dead with a bullet through her brain the other day.
Chauncey Lyon saw the animal fall but heard no report. It was probably a spent bullet from a high power gun.

The present session of legislature is the fifth in which Norman L. Mattison has represented the town of Glasenbury. His first experience was in 1882, or 28 years ago. He was elected again in 1884, 1890, 1902 and now in 1910.
A member of the Mattison family also came up in 1904 and 1906. Glasenbury gave Mead 8 votes and Watson 1 last September.

A movement is on foot for the adding to Vermont holidays by making October 12, the anniversary of the discovery of America, a legal holiday. This day is a holiday in 16 states at the present time. Among the states in New England which observe it are Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut. New York passed the law last year. The day is known as Columbus day.

Burlington's real estate, according to the report of the board of assessors, is now valued at $1,591,893. This is the quadrennial appraisal of 1908. This increase is small when compared with the increase of 1906 over 1902, which was $1,705,919. The increase is also small when the fact is considered that the report contains some property which was not listed four years ago. During the past sixteen years the quadrennial appraisal has increased $4,057,480.

Senator Tuttle of Rutland City has been having more than his share of misfortune lately, the burning of his wife when her skirts caught fire from a gas stove Tuesday, being the latest development. A short time ago his son's wife died, and soon after that their twins, who were very young, died. Only recently, another son was injured by a crabapple thrown, which struck him in the cavity of the eye. The eye is turning white and it is feared that the sight is or will be impaired. Another son's wife broke down with the nervous tension and is now threatened with nervous prostration.

The corn canning season at the H. C.
Baxter factory in Essex Junction closed Tuesday, with a total of 1,189,000 cans.
This is the largest number of cans ever put up at this factory, which was established in 1902. The next largest year was two years ago, when the number was 76,000 less than this year. Last year was an average season with 750, 000 cans. The work of canning began September 7. The season was of about the usual length. The work of labeling will take about two months and twelve to fifteen hands will be employed.
Fifty hands have been employed during the busiest part of the season in the factory, and there has also been a large number of huskers.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. E. A. Flint and her daughter, Miss Bernice Flint, left here Wednesday for Lexington, where they will remain for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and two children from Williston are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells for a few days this week.

Mrs. Ellen Huntington left here on Wednesday, after passing the summer at her home on School street and went to Newport for the winter.

Randolph high school football team played the Whitehall team of Bethel on Saturday last at McCall's park and won, the score being 39 to 0.

Mrs. Fred W. King has arrived here from Essex Center and will be joined here Saturday by her husband, who expects to find employment, when they will make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Morse are here until Friday of this week, while on their way to Hartford, Conn., where they are to locate permanently. Their daughter, Miss Ruth Morse, had preceded them several weeks ago, so as to enter school there.

Mrs. David Dunbar was successfully operated upon Monday at the sanatorium for the removal of a tumor, from which she rallied from the ether and is as comfortable as could be expected.
Mrs. Angell, Rumrill, Bailey and Hayward were the surgeons.

CABOT.

Grange Fair Very Successful, with Large Showing of Exhibits.

Cabot grange held its second annual fair Friday evening, September 30, in their hall in Farrington block, where the thrifty farmers showed their interest in the products of field, garden, vine and tree.

The worthy housewives provided an ample supper for all who were hungry.
They also showed their industry and skill by preparing toothsome preserves, canned vegetables and jellies, as well as some fine work of needle and thread, crochet work and other fancy articles.

One corner of the hall was banked with flowers, the top being surrounded with potatoes, among which were Vermont Gold Coin, Knowles' Good Cropper, and Covhorns, squash, cabbage, carrots, corn, tomatoes, beets, etc. Mrs. Hodgdon showed several cans of vegetables and glassed of jelly.

Bert Nelson of Woodbury showed some ears of corn, which took first honors at the South Woodbury fair.
Mr. View farm was well represented by O. F. Barrett, who had a success of raising fruit. One pumpkin, "Big Tom," measured 2 ft. 7 in. in length and about 25 in. in circumference. Eleven varieties of fine apples, four kinds of potatoes, beets and corn were shown.
Mrs. Barrett exhibited several cans of gooseberries, raspberries, plums and vegetables.

J. A. Woodard displayed a crate of butter boxes, manufactured at his shop at Lower Cabot.

George Gould had a fine collection from Fairview farm of luscious apples, carrots, beets and enormous sunflowers.

Mrs. Jessie Barrett had a collection of cabbage, parsnips and beets; Will Stone, vegetable oysters, beets, kohlrabi and curled kale; John Tebbetts, two sheaves of wheat. Several other articles worthy of honor were not marked with the owner's name.

Col. H. S. Foster, who is now proprietor of Maplewood farm in Calais, formerly owned by his father, Sidney Foster, showed his generosity and interest in agricultural pursuits by a fine display of farm products, consisting of four varieties of apples, Wolf River, Hamshire sweets, St. Lawrence, and Wheatley; mangel beets, cabbage, squash, 20 inches long, kohlrabi beets 18 in. in circumference, rutabagas, 3 1/2 in. in diameter, and cucumbers, all taking honors at South Woodbury fair. Col.
Foster has retired from the United States service and is caring for his aged mother on the old home farm and doubtless will make a success at farming.

In the fancy work department, Mrs.
Josie Barrett showed several rugs of the drawn-in variety, the work of mother's hands, some of them 20 years old.
They looked like new. Mrs. A. A.
Hopkins had several dolls and centerpieces of crocheted work, a braided night-dress, a pair of lace-trimmed pillow slips, a linen tablecloth, edged with lace made in 1840 by Mrs. Lovina Town; Mrs. Tebbetts, a pair of pillow slips with insertion and edge of crocheted lace. Two dust bags without name deserve mention.

Prizes were awarded, but all received honorable mention, and it is hoped this season's fair will arouse a deeper interest among the farmers to try their best to beat somebody else in the size and quantity of next year's products.

After a social hour, the vegetables and flowers were mostly sold to the highest bidder, Eliza Smith acting as auctioneer.
The proceeds of the supper and articles sold amounted to $31.
